LIQUIDATION BY LONGS CAUSES DECLINE IN STOCKS.

DISCUSSION OF IRON OUT LOOK FEATURE OF DAY.

Threatened Labor Trouble on Great Northern Depresses the Whole New York Market.

New York, May 13.-The selling which caused this morning's decline in stocks had the appearance of a spilling out of long the situation to-day to induce this selling. which was probably due to a carried-over influence from vesterday's events. Authoritative denials of yesterday's report of a deep cut in the price of steel bil-lets at Pittsburg by a leading interest did not put an immediate stop to the seiling of the United States Steel stocks and those of the United States Steel stocks and those of the independent companies.

Discussion of the iron trade outlook was a leading feature of the day's speculative situation. The professional stock operators are not notable for deep information on technical topics, but they paid much attention to abstruse discussions of the iron trade, which were put out in some cases with the purpose of reassuring sentiment. These discussions mostly took the form of deprecation of any talk of discouragement because of the current declining tendency in the price of pig iron, alleging that the higher level recently prevailing was really artificial and for special deliveries or other reasons. The course of prices of stocks indicates that speculative sentiment was not entirely reassured by the tone of these trade reports in face of the concrete facts of a stagnant demand for pig iron.

LABOR TROUBLES.

trade reports in face of the concrete facts of a stagnant demand for pig iron.

LABOR TROUBLES.

The threatened labor trouble on the Great Northern Railroad system and the fear that a contest once inaugurated might spread in the railroad world was a depressing factor on the whole market. The special early weakness of the trunk lines showed that the influence of yesterday's reduction in grain rates from Chicago to New York was still an influence. Baltimore and Ohio did not share in the heaviness of this group, and in the market's later raily it was marked up a point above last night.

The turbulent speculation in the cotton market and the Illinois State Agricultural Bureau's unfavorable crop report continued to exercise some depressing influence. More attention was paid also to the notable delay in the planting of the corn crop.

The prospect of additional gold exports eventually the market and the perception that the day would pass without engagements being made for shipment was a material factor in railying the market late in the day.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

The conditions in the international exchanges were apparently the same to-day as when the engagement was made on Monday for export. But there was a material relaxation to-day in the London money market, due to the progress of the allotment of the Transvaal loan, which releases large sums to the market which were tied up by the 3 per cent required in making application for the loan. If this shall put an end to the outward movement of gold from New York for the present the result may be of importance on the financial situation.

The recovery in the market was effected on a much smaller volume of dealings than was the decline, but it was impeded by the selling of Rock Island, which was persistent in face of the late firmness of the general market. The close was heavy and almost lifeless.

The bond market again showed great va-FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

Yesterday's Bank Clearings.

LOCAL SECURITIES STRONG WITH INCREASED DEMAND.

MISSOURI TRUST IS AGAIN THE FEATURE.

Transit Advances Early, but Eases Off and Closes About Steady.

Signs of a healthy revival of interest in the local security market were abundant yesterday. The range of trading was wider than it had been for some time, and the feeling in nearly all issues was builtsh Missouri Trust was again the strong spot. Support of this stock began early in the opening ression and continued until the close. Early rales were at $131, but buying orders came out so rapidly that in a comparatively short time the price had been boosted from that figure to $123.50, the net gain for the session being $2.50 a share. At the afternoon session there was a slight recession to $133.25, at which price more was wanted at the close.

Tractions were in moderate demand and slightly higher, with sales of Transit at $25.25. The 4 per cent bonds held firm at $85. Colonial Trust held firm at $197, and Lincoin had good support at $24.60 and $25. Germania at $245.50 and Mississippi Valley at $441 were moderately active, but strong. Commonwealth Truse was the feature of the afternoon session. After sales at $233 and $22.50, the price was rapidly advanced to $250, and the market closed strong with $255 and American Exchange Bank was taken at $335.

The stock of the National Enameling Company and the 5 per cent bonds of the East St. Louis Gaslight Company were listed yesterday.

SOUTHERN CATTLE—Quarantine cattle receipts were liberal, the supply showing a total of 170 cars, that contained 4.6% head, which is the largest day's receipts this year, with the exception of one day, on January 10. when 191 cars were yarded. A week ago there were received si cars and 1981 head, against 7 cars and 271 head the week before.

With the exception of 25 cars of fed steers the balance of the supply were grassers. Only a load of calves were offered with 121 cars of buils, 43 of cows and helical with 121 cars of the steers. There were a few supply but the majority of the offerings were on the medium deer, with a steers among the supply but majority of the offerings wof the canner grades.

The market opened on a very dull moving basis and continued throughout the day up to the close, buyers contending for lower values, which salesmen finally had to concede in order to make sales, and the decline on killing grades of steers, she stuff and bulls was 10c lower than Thesday. The canner grades were stendy with the decline of 10gific the previous day. The few calves brought steady prices. It was hard salling even brought steady prices. It was hard salling even at the decline to make sales and up to a late hour cattle were still going to the sales.
